v.

Defendant. John Doe

ANSWER TO FORCIBLE DETAINER COMPLAINT

Defendant, for the answer to Plaintiff's Forcible Detainer Complaint, states as follows:

1. Defendant denies each and every allegation of Plaintiff's complaint.
2. Defendant affirmatively states the following defenses and reasons the complaint should be dismissed:
 1. The landlord failed to make necessary repairs to the property despite being notified. This includes the furnace has been broken since January and the landlord has not repaired it despite written requests.
 2. I dispute the amount of rent the landlord claims I owe. I believe the correct amount is the ledger includes unauthorized late fees and charges a month I already paid.
 3. The landlord did not provide proper legal notice before filing this eviction. The notice was I did not receive proper written notice before the forcible detainer was filed.
